LEAD PASTOR REPORT

Over the past few months, we have been walking through the book of Revelation on Sunday mornings. While Revelation is often met with confusion or fear, it is actually one of the most hope-filled books in the Bible. It was written to encourage the church by reminding us that Jesus Christ reigns, His kingdom cannot be shaken, and the final victory already belongs to Him.

This series developed from a writing project I started in January 2025. The first volume of my book, Revelation and Its Parallels, is now in print. I am working on the second volume, which covers the rest of Revelation. My hope is that this resource helps readers see how the message of Revelation is closely tied to the rest of Scripture and ultimately points us to the victory of Jesus Christ.

I believe we are entering an exciting season of life and mission together as a church. I am grateful that we get to open God's Word together and continue longing to see lives transformed by the only message that has the power to do so—the gospel of Jesus Christ (Rom. 1:16–17).

OFFICE REPORT

I am so grateful to be part of the team here at Meadowbrooke. I have learned a lot over the past few months, and I am really grateful to Michaela who did a great job passing the baton. Thank you to everyone who has been patient with me as we work together to make sure things happen smoothly at Meadowbrooke!

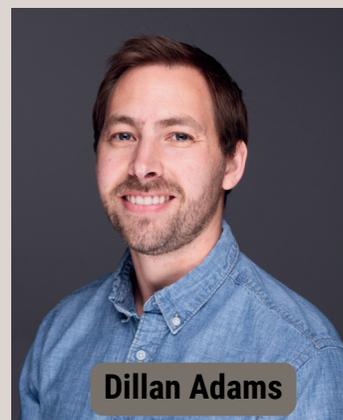

It's been a privilege to help execute some of the events at Meadowbrooke, including the First Impressions Training, Super Bowl Chili Cookoff, and Baptism Sunday. Now we're planning for Easter Sunday, Partnership Pathway, and plenty of summer fun.

WORSHIP & DISCIPLESHIP REPORT

I'm encouraged by the growth we've seen in Worship and Life Groups. The music team is expanding our musicality by introducing new songs that are both theologically rich and congregationally accessible. It's been humbling and exciting to see the team lean in and serve the church with such intentionality. Additionally, multiple individuals and families have expressed interest in joining a Life Group here at Meadowbrooke, which is incredibly encouraging. Looking ahead, my prayer is that God would raise up more Life Group leaders who are willing to host and step into this vital discipleship role.

YOUTH REPORT

God has been so good to the youth ministry (a.k.a. Next Generation) here at Meadowbrooke! We've welcomed quite a few new faces this year to the youth group, and our middle school population has increased. We're excited to once again spend the first weekend of August at Table in the Wilderness for our three-day retreat. Along with the retreat, we are planning some other smaller events for the youth to do outside of our Sunday night meetings. Come find me if you're interested in volunteering. Looking forward to what God has in store for this ministry!

FAMILY REPORT

Hadley Peebles

Now that I have finished student teaching, I want to thank everyone who stepped in to help keep our Kids Ministry running smoothly during that busy season. Your willingness to serve, teach, and love our children allowed the ministry not only to continue but also to grow. I am especially grateful to Jan Bradley, Rebecca Cook, and Karen Pannel for the many extra hours and leadership you provided. As I move into the next season, I will be serving as a long-term substitute at the school while continuing in my role here at the church.

Over the past six months, our church classroom attendance has increased by 11%. Because of this growth, we are looking for additional volunteers in the nursery and toddler rooms so we can continue providing a safe and nurturing environment for our youngest children.

We are beginning to prepare for VBS, which will take place June 22–26, and we will be holding a volunteer meeting soon—please watch for more details.

Thank you for your prayers, support, and faithful service to our church families.

ELDER REPORT

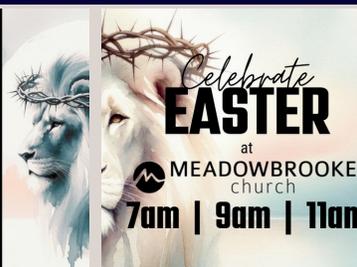

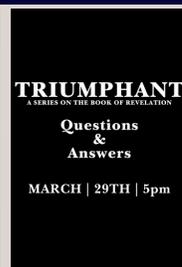

This past quarter, the Elder Board has focused on reaching out to our Partners on an individual basis. To provide better care for those in our church, we've set up a program to reach out to every Partner at least quarterly. This is a continuation of our efforts to build community, following from our church directory effort last year. This has already led our meetings to focus more on prayer and spiritual care. If you are not yet a Partner, I would encourage you to look into the process. However, if you would like to be added to this list to be called quarterly, please reach out to let us know. We'd love to know how to pray for you better.
